

Reverse Immigration In Canada (2018-23)

Key Performance Indicator

Emigration Rate and Trends: Identify trends in emigration numbers over the selected time frame (2018 – 2023).

Emigration Destination and Demographics:
To understand the pattern, assessed demographic factors in realtion to socio-economic factors.

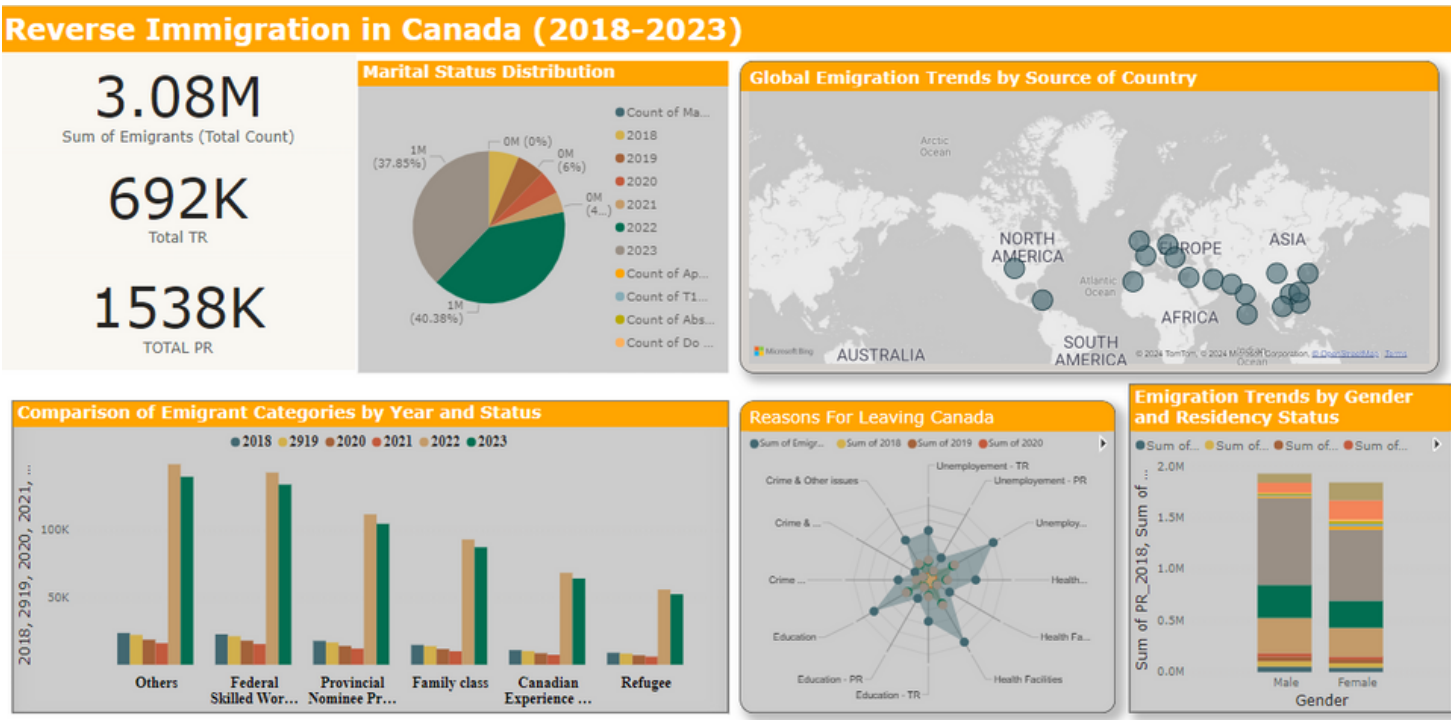

Reasons for Emigration:
We took the data about certain reasons driving emigration from Canada, including health facilities, family reunification, educational pursuits and safety and others.

Methodology

Through calculations, the total number of emigrants for each year within the specified timeframe is determined .Examination of trends and patterns in emigration rates is conducted.

Considering various influencing factors such as economic conditions, health facilities, education, safety and other issue & Utilizing charts, graphs, and tables, the data is presented in a visually accessible manner.

Insights

Data Visualization using Power Bi for Descriptive Analysis of the issue to be analysed by concerned stakeholders

Analysis

Emigrants	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	Total Count
Permanent Residents	98,271	92,204	77,591	66,627	92,876	94,576	5,22,145
Percentage	18.82	17.66	14.86	12.76	17.79	18.11	34%
Temporary Residents (Work & Study Visa)	NA	NA	NA	NA	5,28,063	4,87,406	1015469
Percentage					52	48	66%

Data Organised chronologically and used the variables to visualise the post pandemic trend and reasons for leaving canada.

